So on your samsung wear you see the price of gold starting to drop lately just like the stock market.
We know that the gold standard is coming back but whats that got to do with the vektor virus? what is that?
Gold was taken out of venezuala to pay for taht mason to be equal president.

How is it possible that youve said the market would return for reelection, but simultaneously, the lucky die first? How is that possible? Is this really the big one? Will massive numbers of the population die? Can you elaborate? I am not an op, just a civ, but i do lots of work in the other life. I follow ur threads very close

Was heavily vested before Obama was elected and then when he was elected I dumped another 250k in physical stores.
It has all 10x'd since then.
Also heavily vested in physical vintage whiskey and so on.
I do not drink, but those vestments have performed well.
I also vested heavily in pulp mills which produce toilet paper 6 years ago, but what do I know, I'm apparently just a Larp named Frank or whatever the Chelsea Manning Posters name of the day is for me.

Is that a tab for military uniforms?

>be a top secret, ultra classified black operation >wear a unique tab that literally everyone will immediately identify because there's like literally 5 tabs total in the army and anything outside of that immediately draws attention to it (not to mention those 5 tabs already get attention drawn to them because they're uncommon as is).

Lol okay likely story, friendo.

It's like how delta force wears really special uniform items - oh wait they fucking don't because they're super top secret and don't want attention.

some (((russians))) carted off the gold as payment for themselves, and that gold paid for vektor virus that was taken (under guise of fire).
maduro wanted to have vektor virus alongside alliances with iranians to leverage against US along with his cartel (aka democrat deep state US elements) allies against POTUS.
Putin not powerful enough to stop all the clown activity and (((oligarch))) influence in russia who are aligned with globalists and chinese.
chinese developed the weapon and different strains to release against the world or threaten to if they needed it.

The only question is what do those who have the gold want to do with silver?
inb4 did state the obvious: those who have the gold makes the rules. Since we have the most (majority) gold, it stands to reason we do.
As part of the alliance between POTUS/US patriots and indian leadership, POTUS agreed to keep pakistani isi and muslim extremist elements under notice (so they don't blow themselves up and others) and ensure india can secure both its domestic security and gain full control of the gold deposits mentioned by OP in order to secure its modest but relevant position in the world, enough to fund the new economy in coming years alongside new financial paradigm designed on POTUS and allies.
modi was giddier then bride at a wedding.
In return, indian leadership and government will obviously need to cease any qualms or false (((racial))) grievences against the west and not raise clamor about cutting off h1b etc to the west due to risks its domestic population going out of control once they are elsewhere due to severity of racial/social problems they have as people currently. Such troubles will spell doom for any kind of US - india alliance if you allow fucking fools to make trouble and enrage the people as it is now. Not just US but west or urssia or anywhere in general.
Newly found gold deposits could ensure healthy economy for 1.4 billion people in cooperation with US economically, reducing the need for foreign jobs and also reducing the power of globalist-aligned elements in india encouraging such route. Same ones who through bollywood lionize muslims and others against indian population, encouraging degeneracy etc.
Sounds about right.

BD just said he is heading to brazil soon and mentioned how maduro's venezuela gov't is a threat allied with iranians and some other strange shenanigans.
Maduro literally starved his own people and told them to suck toilet paper and die. There's also the fact that this nation was used in conjunction with cartels (just like columbia) to push drugs and massive caravans in the past against US and any country in the way.
Put it simply, all of these 'anti-imperialist socialist' governments just do the bidding of serving one side of the globalist destalizatoin agenda both foreign and domestic to themselves. A country that is under grips of socialism which is just a neo-feudal hierarchy starves and burns its own people (china).
Surface excuses don't matter. Power and control is all that is relevant, and such governments always pretend to be champions of the people while destroying their potential and will. You get nothing unless you tow gov't line.
So maduro is not only connected to regional drug cartels who finance his gov't to stay alive (which is essentially US democrat see aye a factions) but also is allied with ayatollah gov't in using drug money in south america to fund their activities.
Not to mention sneaking in assets and dangerous weapons to US.
chinese fentanyl and drug poisons to US possibly facilitated by maduro?
chinese intelligence activities in south america is how bad? Does bolsonaro and brazilian military know? So many questions.

Ok now let me entertain for a minute your idea of society crumbling around us. Congratulations you shifted all you assets into gold currency, now please do tell me if it all crumbles as you say it's going to happen, how likely are you to get all YOUR gold out of THEIR vaults in the midst of a pandemic, a stock market crash, and nationwide chaos?
>>>Well its all digital nowadays.
Yeah and digital is absolutely worthless if all hell breaks loose, the internet will be the first thing they clamp down, you ain't getting your gold. There is always gonna be some kind of "technical error" or "red tape" that will only allow some to none of your gold to be withdrawn, then imagine yes you did get all your actual gold out now all you've really done is burdoned yourself with hundreds to thousands of pounds of actual gold you gotta lug around and defend. In the midst of a complete meltdown it's the little meaningless things we take for granted today that are gonna be worth their weight in gold in the future, keep your shekles

Ezikiel 7:19
They will throw their silver into the streets, and their gold will seem like something filthy. Their silver and gold will be unable to save them in the day of the LORD's wrath. They will not satisfy their appetites or fill their stomachs, for these were the stumbling blocks that brought about their iniquity.

SHTF is already here, it's more of a slow boil that's all.
Last time I checked, we are still in a world with a functional banking system and such that is being taken back as fast as it is possible.
The key here is that even if SHTF scenario happens as long as people are alive we are capable of rebuilding.
If you have to trade cigarettes, food, medicine for more than 5 years, you got worse problems then 'surviving in SHTF' scenario most believe they can survive on that alone.
In the end, numbers and cooperation with like minded individuals will win the day to re-establish necessary building blocks for a sophisticated community, more then just the one where cigarettes food and medcine is the currency.
Gold silver and such are prized as value holding assets because they are intrinsically useful and have utility value far beyond pretty jewlery and rarity in many ways.
Guess it all depends on how much unveiled stuff we have will be released but it won't be unless we can resolve all our problems in this era via POTUS and beyond.
I sincerely hope POTUS is doing alright, and he can ride the wave with us to put us at the top and secure both socially, diplomatically, militarily, culturally and spiritually for the future.
Our reality right now that we had until 2012, will be maintained even if it must take time to recover if we can do this.
"choose greatness"
So shall it be.

https://www.kitco.com/news/2020-03-12/Physical-silver-bullion-is-back-in-demand-and-the-U-S-Mint-can-t-keep-up.html
"The U.S. Mint announced Thursday that it has temporarily sold out of American Eagle Silver Eagle Bullion coins.

“Our rate of sale in just the first part of March exceeds 300% of what was sold last month,” the Mint said in a press release Thursday. “West Point is working diligently to produce additional inventory and once additional inventory is produced, we will again begin allocations.”

Data from the U.S. Mint shows that it has sold 2.32 million one-ounce silver coins so far this month, up significantly from February sales of 650,000 coins.

Year to date, the U.S. Mint has sold 6.816 million ounces of coins, down about 1% compared to sales in the first three months of 2019. However, March is seeing its best sales pace since 2016.

Some analysts have noted that silver is becoming more attractive to investors as its significantly undervalued compared to gold. Thursday, the gold/silver ratio hit its highest level in history at 101, meaning it takes more than 100 ounces of silver to equal one ounce in gold. "

Bump.
Don't you think I'll let this slide so early, Frank.

I've had this idea for a shay/willamette with a gearbox so it can at least keep pace with most freight lines, but I've nowhere near the mechanical knowledge to even begin designing. guess I'll see if I can't find some place to train me in something mechanical so I can get the ball rolling, but ultimately I wanted to set up a scenic route in the PNW. there's even a warehouse for rent with rail access in my town.
where did you get started? college/trade into work, or trained on-site, or...?
